Legal/ Official Remedies

The Registration of Marriage of Non-Resident Indian Bill, 2019 must be passed by the Parliament of India.

Indian Diplomatic Missions abroad must help the victims of such marriages. This could be done by setting up a Special Cell for attending to NRI Marriage problems in the Ministry of External Affairs/Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs.

International NGOs and CSOs with global linkages should collaborate with the government for checking the antecedents of crucial fraudulent bridegrooms. They may also identify volunteers in the different cities abroad who could help victims in tracing the whereabouts of such grooms. This would be possible if the Government (Ministry of External Affairs in particular) and NGOs make a common cause to help victims of desertion and to prevent its recurrence.

Any "honeymoon marriages" with NRI reported by the deserted woman should be treated as a rape case, brought under Rape law to enable booking of cases against NRIs who desert their wives, under section 371 of the Indian Penal Code.

Jurisdiction- validity of Court Orders of foreign nations in India- Ex-Parte Divorce- Cancellation of sponsorship

Rehabilitation and support services should be provided to deserted women such as shelter homes, legal aid, vocational/ skill training etc. Restitution of Conjugal Rights

Counselling centres in police stations should provide support to the victims.

There should be a provision of legal aid cell in all district headquarters for awareness generation regarding the laws related to dowry, divorce, maintenance, child custody etc. They should also provide information with regard to visa, passport and other statutory needs for stay abroad.

Police and judiciary needs to be sensitized about the desertion of married women by NRIs.
